Subject: WHA Group warns the public not to buy any products from a fake website created by scammers, using the Company's name and logo

Dear Editor,

WHA Corporation Public Company Limited (WHA Group) was recently notified about scammers using the Company's and its subsidiaries' names and logos. This includes the use of forged documents in relation to the Company to mislead the public to buy products from a counterfeited website set up under various names.

WHA Group would like to alert the public to be cautious of scammers and to confirm that the Company is not related to this action under any circumstances. For anyone who encounters such actions, please contact us at:

Telephone: 0-2719-9555

Email: marketing@wha-group.com

Website: <https://www.wha-group.com/en/contact>

Facebook: via Messenger at www.facebook.com/whagroup

The company aims to collect all related evidence in order to take further legal action in this case. We would highly appreciate it if media could help publicize this information to prevent further scams.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely yours,

WHA Group Press Information Center
